DEDICATION

We, the class of 1951, gratefully dedicate this yearbook to Miss Charles Anthony, for her untiring effort to teach us with patience and understanding, and for her relentless guidance which has led our publications forward to brilliant honors.

ANOTHER YEAR has passed and the Staff of the 1951 MARSHALLITE has, during the past term, tried to capture within its covers the true spirit of John Marshall. Our purpose was to provide pictures and stories that would always bring back fond memories of our days at John Marshall. Often after many years have passed our memories of our three years in high school have become only vague memories. We hope that as you turn the pages of this, the 1951 MARSHALLITE, and see many familiar faces and records of happy hours, you will be able to re-live the eventful three years you spent at John Marshall. We hope, too, that this forty-first volume will measure up to the high standards that are a part of the tradition of this school. If this has been accomplished then we feel that the Staff's labor has been dully rewarded.

The Parent-Teacher-Student Association of John Marshall, organized four years ago, has brought closer co-operation among the parents, teachers, and students. The P. T. S. A. has enabled the parents to see the work done by the students and has brought about a better understanding of the school, community, and home in the education of the student. Thus, in a measure, the organization is achieving the purposes for which it was founded.

The first meeting of the P. T. S. A., held early in September, was a "get-acquainted" meeting. At the December meeting, the students presented a concert of music from "The Messiah." Work of the various departments was displayed at the last regular meeting held in April.

One of the main factors in the success of the group this year has been the untiring enthusiasm of the president, Mr. Eugene B. Luck.

National Honor Society

President..Melvin Roach
Sponsor............................Miss Wilhelmina Wright

The John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society has completed its thirteenth year. Our chapter was founded in 1939 by Dr. C. P. Ely, and, since its founding, has taken in five hundred and thirty-six members.

The National Honor Society now has more than four thousand chapters in high schools throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines. It was founded in 1919, at the meeting of the National Association of Secondary School Principals in Chicago. There were then in existence local honor clubs which these principals realized were valuable in the promotion of better scholarship. So they recommended that a committee be appointed to study the principles of such local societies, and that a national organization be formed to further the good work the locals had been doing. This committee, after two years of study, proposed a constitution for a new National organization that embraced character, leadership, and service — as well as scholarship — as basis of membership. This constitution framed the general minimal requirements for membership, but left the details of operation to the local chapters.

Each term the names of the seniors in John Marshall who have averaged 90 or above on scholarship are sent to all the teachers for recommendation to the society. To be eligible in our chapter, your scholastic average must be 90 or above, and you must get a favorable vote from the faculty.

This year, since our senior class is small, we have a very limited number of members. However, next year, we hope to get back to normal.

Sponsor	Miss H. Arnita Raffo

With Miss Anita Raffo, Miss Ann Catherine Cross, and Miss Mary Jenkens as advisers, the John Marshall Student Association had a very successful year.

Many students have commented on the five plaques that the organization bought and placed under the portraits in the halls.

The organization sold pencils with the game schedules on them, while football pins and programs were sold at the football games. Many students attended the pep rallies that the association presented before school.

During the year homeroom presidents and members of the executive committee collected clothes for the Good Will. They aided, also, in the school insurance campaign and planned a clean-up drive during Beautify Your City Week.

The student association decorated the Christmas tree in the lobby of John Marshall just before Christmas holidays. Aided by teachers and classmates, the organization filled Thanksgiving baskets for the needy.

Another service of the student association was the collecting of toys for underprivileged children overseas in the Tide of Toys Campaign. The March of Dimes campaign brought in $360.13, and students contributed $130.40 to the Crusade for Freedom Drive.

Quill and Scroll

President	Marian Minor
Vice-President	Juanita McConnell
Secretary	Georgie Schmitz
Scrapbook Keeper	Sidney Dixon

Since last September the John Marshall Chapter of Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, which was organized in 1930, has accepted 34 members, thus bringing the total membership to about 600.

Pledging to uphold the high ideals of Quill and Scroll December 6, sixteen members accepted their chapter pins from Miss Charles Anthony, sponsor. Shirley Millington and Mel Roach, two members of Quill and Scroll, presided at the initiation and presented the initiates to Dr. Fred B. Dixon, who welcomed the new members into the John Marshall chapter.

These students were in the upper third in class standing, had done distinctive work in business or creative endeavor on a publication, were recommended by the publication adviser, and had been accepted by the chapter sponsor and by the executive secretary of Quill and Scroll.

Following the initiation, there was much gay laughter and good eating in The Monocle pressroom at the reception by the sponsor for the initiates, their parents, and the faculty.

Previous to the initiation, the society was happy to learn they had won a plaque for the Quill and Scroll scrapbook, compiled by Nancy Adkins and James Lindsey.

At Christmas, the Quill and Scroll members got the urge to have a Christmas tree and party as had been the custom since the organization of the society at John Marshall. So amid holly, running cedar, and crepe paper, the journalists served punch and cookies to the faculty and John Marshall alumni who were members of the chapter. Many attended the holiday party.

In January, the society gave a luncheon for the members of the journalism class who would assist the staff and fill in the vacancies made by mid-term graduation. Special guests included Dr. and Mrs. Fred B. Dixon, Miss Mary Gladys Lambert, Mr. Grady Garrett, and Mrs. Madge Hendeson. New staff members received their appointments at this time.

Mr. John Latouche, Jayem alumnus and author of Ballet Ballads and other literary successes, spoke to the chapter February 21. He told of experiences in writing at Jayem and as a profession and characterized some of the writers he had the opportunity to work with.

The John Marshall chapter recently received a blue and gold Quill and Scroll banner for continuous service and participation in Quill and Scroll Society.

Drama Classes

Through the efforts of Mrs. Charlotte De Courcy and Miss Eva Branch, the Class of Drama became a regular part of the speech course in 1938. Students, who must have had at least one term in speech, direct, produce, and act in plays given in room 209. In this room are stage, curtains and other equipment, which were obtained by Miss De Courcy. Besides acting, each student keeps a record of the activities of the entire course in a notebook with pictures of costumes through the ages. Work on committees such as library, costumes, lights, props, make-up, set, and bulletin board is included.

Some of the one-act plays produced as class work were: The Dear Departed, Always a Prisoner, The Woman in the Freight Car, The Valiant, Fourteen, Never Too Old, Overtones, Holding a Husband, Wisdom Teeth, Wrong Numbers, Three's a Crowd, Letters, and scenes from Dear Brutus, The Importance of Being Earnest, and Quality Street.

The Junior Red Cross of John Marshall High School started the year by filling around ninety boxes to be sent overseas to needy children. This was followed by our membership drive which resulted in practically 100% students as members and the money totaled approximately $160.

We contributed our services at Thanksgiving by making a booklet for shut-ins at the Medical College Hospital, Crippled Children's Hospital and Cooley Hospital. The poems, pictures, and essays for these booklets were written by the shut-ins, then typed, mimeographed and assembled by students at John Marshall.

Our main spring event was the collecting of money to fill a chest to be sent overseas for needy school children.

This year the orchestra has about fifteen new students who have just come to John Marshall from different Junior High Schools. Melvin Kaufman and Marie Harrison are two of the new students who hold first chairs in our orchestra.

During the fall seven of our students entered into the All-State Orchestra. All seven of these students received a very good rating.

This year we have played on two assembly programs. We have made recordings this year for the first time, one which was heard over the radio. The orchestra played for the Baccalaureate services and also for the February and June commencements. The orchestra will compete with all the different high schools in May at which time we will receive a rating. Last year we received a rating of excellent which is very good.

The Verse-Speaking Choir was organized in the fall of 1946 under the leadership of Miss Thelma Keene who has continued to serve as the director. Although the choir did not receive its charter until March 5, 1947, it made its first public appearance in a talent assembly program in October, 1946. Shortly after this program it read selections at the Thanksgiving assemblies. At the dedication of the plaque in honor of those who gave their lives for their country in World War II, the choir gave its interpretation of selections from the Psalms. It has also appeared at meetings of the Parent-Teacher-Student Association. The choir has taken part each year in "The Prince of Peace," the traditional Christmas pageant presented by the Senior Class. Since its organization the choir has read at each commencement original selections written especially for the choir for presentation on these occasions. The choir also takes part in the Baccalaureate Service by pronouncing the invocation and reading the scripture reference.

Its repertoire consists of humorous works as well as those of a serious nature. In public productions selections are read from memory and include solo parts in addition to group work. Some of the selections read by the choir are "The Highwayman," a special arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer," "The Sleigh," "A Quaker's Wooing," "A Chant Out of Doors," and "Thirteen Sisters."

In January, 1951, the Verse-Speaking Choir was incorporated in an English class in the regular curriculum. A group of superior readers were given an opportunity to choose two days a week in the junior year for the study of American poetry and choir work. Miss Keene continued to direct the group on these days. The choir has participated in the activities formerly sponsored by the group and has also read at meetings of the Business Men's Bible Class and the Kiwanis Club.

The Verse-Speaking Choir by participating in many activities at John Marshall has tried to stimulate in its members a greater appreciation of poetry and prose and to create in the audience greater interest in interpretation through choral reading.

The Forum Club lost so many of its members through graduation that the 1950-51 year has been devoted to finding new recruits. Under the able direction of Anne McCann, our membership has grown to twenty-seven — only eight short of our constitutional limitation of thirty-five.

The programs for the year, arranged by Mary Hannon and Paul Lindsey, have been varied and interesting. To analyze and increase our understanding of the subjects under consideration, we have had guest speakers, we have participated in discussions ourselves, and we have had movies. The guest speakers included Miss Ellen Baudrais from the Netherlands, Miss Rosina Bowers, our former sponsor, the Reverend Arthur W. Newell, Dr. Frances Gregory, and Lt. Colonel Joseph W. Koch. When Dr. Gregory spoke to us on "Is a Third World War Inevitable?" we invited the Literary Society, the Key Club, and representatives from the History classes to meet with us. This subject provoked a most lively discussion. "Universal Military Training" drew discussion and opinions from every member at another meeting. A quiz program on the United Nations proved to be a battle of wits and revealed both our knowledge and lack of knowledge of this world organization. Having read a government pamphlet entitled "Survival Under Atomic Attack", we asked Richmond's civil defense director to provide a speaker to discuss plans as developed to date. This open meeting with Lt. Colonel Koch was well attended and proved most instructive.

Edna Long and Mary Hannon had the privilege of attending the second Virginia Woman's Forum presented by Miller & Rhoads on November 9. The theme was "Woman's Place in a Changing World".

On December 1, Edna, Mary, Billy Woolard, and Anne McCann, with our sponsor, represented John Marshall at the International Relations Conference at Randolph Macon College in Ashland. The topic was the "United Nations and World Security." We enjoyed discussing phases of this subject with students from other schools.

Members of our club have attended the meetings of the Richmond Public Forum and have given us interesting summaries of the subjects discussed there.

Our sponsor this year has been Miss Jeffries Heinrich and we hope all the new members will give her fine support next year.

Twenty-six student library assistants have been rendering most valuable service to fellow students and to the school by serving as volunteer workers in the library. Their duties include aiding other students with library problems, routine desk work, checking passes, typing, filing, etc. The entire staff feels that their service to the school has also aided them personally in that they have acquired a greater knowledge of books and library administration.

The staff holds regular meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month at which time library problems are discussed. Each student on the staff meets certain standards scholastically and with regard to library practices.

The program includes weekly meetings for the discussion of the Scriptures and of Christian issues. Once a month a film of value in building character is shown. Each year some special service is undertaken by the League. This year they have spent one afternoon a week cheering the patients at Sheltering Arms Hospital. Social affairs for the development of the members have included an oyster roast, an evening party and a banquet at the close of the year.

The John Marshall Literary Society is composed of thirty-five girls who have been recommended by their English teachers because of their interest in literature and in learning about good books.

The topic for the session was "The American Nobel Prize Winners in Literature". Reports were given on the different people by some of the girls. There were also outside speakers to come and tell the group about the various authors.

The specific study for the spring was story telling, including the structure of stories and practice in telling them. Another topic was the preview and review of moving pictures, and an evaluation of them for other students. Field trips to places of interest in Richmond were included in the activities. Two social meetings a term were given, one for the new members and one for the graduates, at which time an hour of fun followed the regular program.

Four girls graduated from the society in February. They were Peggy Barnhill, Sara Lee Menzel, Joyce Bryan, and Ann Harlow. The alumnae of the club have shown a great deal of interest in the Society and often come back to share in activities

Invitations were extended to twenty-five students in February. The club sponsor is Miss Florence Ingram.

The students pictured above are members of the John Marshall Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, an organization made up of high school and college retailing students and alumni. These Marshallites earn while they learn. They attend school in the morning, having just three classes and with the help of Mrs. Ely, Distributive Education Coordinator, find employment in Richmond's retail and wholesale establishments doing stock work, display and selling. They work a minimum of 15 hours a week as part of their training in Distributive Education.

Their classroom and club activities are very closely related. They study many things that are related to the field of selling such as salesmanship, merchandise information, display, advertising, store organization, stockkeeping, business arithmetic and effective speech.

Some of the events of the year were the Brunswick Stew Luncheon, a trip to Petersburg on February 12 to the area D. E. Club Convention where Joan Owens represented our club in the speech contest, and the annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

The most outstanding event was our attendance at the state convention where Kenneth Payne was our representative. While we were there we were happy to hear that Kenneth was elected State Parliamentarian.

This makes the second year that a member of the John Marshall Distributive Education Club has been Parliamentarian for the Distributive Education Clubs of Virginia.

In the contests at the state convention we were also fortunate. The merchandise manual entitled "Man and Cotton" made by Joan Owens and competing with manuals from the thirty other clubs in the state, won second prize and the poster entered by our club was chosen to represent the State of Virginia at the Distributive Education Clubs of America Convention in Tulsa, Oklahoma in April.

The Key Club

Serving the school in any way possible is the aim of the Key Club of John Marshall High School, an organization of thirty-five of the school's finest boys, sponsored by the Richmond Kiwanis Club.

To become a Key Clubber it is necessary for a boy to be in the upper third of his class, to be recommended by a teacher, and to be passed on by the club itself. All classes, freshman, sophomore, junior. and senior are represented.

As mentioned before, the Key Club is a service club and the following constitute but a few of the undertakings of the club since September, 1950.

If you are a football fan you surely noticed the boys selling programs at the games this fall. They were none other than Key Clubbers. Blotters bearing the football schedule were printed and distributed by the club at the first P. T. S. A. meeting of the term, welcoming newcomers. A U. N. flag was presented to the history department at Jayem. Christmas cards were sent to 101 members of the faculty and to members of the Key Club Committee of the Kiwanis Club.

Probably the most important bit of work done by the club was the sponsoring of numerous talks for the pupils on various vocations including designing, photography, and engineering.

Although primarily for the benefit of the club itself, Miss Edna Long, a junior cheerleader, was elected to the title of "Key Club Sweetheart," to help represent the club at any social functions.

Much of the credit for a fine organization lies with the sponsor, Mr. James C. Harwood, a member of the faculty, and with Fred C. Mallory, president.

While having a fine time with fellow members, the Key Club builds up a sense of responsibility and leadership among a group of young men who will be tomorrow's leaders. Their motto covers the goal well, "We build too."

Membership in the John Marshall High School Business Education Club is restricted to boys and girls taking one or more business subjects.

The primary functions of the club are: to afford an opportunity for improving efficiency, to gain and attain higher standards and interests in the profession, to provide a facility for acquiring skilled knowledge, short cuts and up-to-date techniques in stenography, to promote understanding among students with similar goals, to encourage students to study business, to broaden our views socially and professionally.

Club activities are unlimited in the business department. Our meetings are held once monthly at two recess periods. We have been able to acquire the services of numerous executives in personnel divisions of local organizations, who have spoken on such topics as "Interviews," "Clerical Job Opportunities," "Promotion Possibilities," "Securing a Job," and others. Mrs. Blanche Cofer, Personnel Department of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, Miss Anne Ritchie Ware, Personnel Department of the Virginia Electric and Power Company, Mr. Irving Shull, Director, Richmond Office, Virginia Employment Service, and Miss Barbara Bennett, Thalhimers Youth Consultant, were among the guest speakers this year.

Some very interesting films have been shown including "Telephone Courtesy," "So You Want to Be a Secretary," "Stepping Along with Television," and "Filing in Business." Several field trips are sponsored through our Club. We visit an insurance company, one or more banks, a typewriter office, the telephone company and others. The First and Merchants National Bank, through Mr. John Tyler, Jr., very graciously allowed us to take our picture for the Marshallite within the confines of their vault.

Diversified Occupations Training

President..........William R. Polson
Vice-President..........William E. Holder
Secretary-Treasurer..........Harold W. Barbour
Sponsor..........A. E. Harshaw, D. O. Coordinator

Through a cooperative agreement between employers, parents and schools, the Diversified Occupations program enables students in the junior or senior year to select employment in certain occupations which in cooperation with the school serve as training agencies. Much care and thought is given by the coordinator and counselor to the satisfactory placement of each student, who thus receives training in the occupation of his choice under actual working conditions for a minimum of three hours per day, five days per week. The student also devotes three a day to school work, where he receives one hour of instruction specifically related to his job, and two hours of instruction in subjects required for graduation. Credit is granted toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job. In addition the learner is paid a fair hourly wage by his employer.

The student benefits in that he gets a practical insight into the world of work and receives training on the job for the occupation of his choice. Additional satisfaction comes to him also in the opportunity thus provided for attaining good work habits and desirable attitudes.

The student is enabled to retain his identity with his school group and upon graduation has earned the necessary credit to enter college if he so desires. He also gains the necessary work experience to enable him to readily secure permanent full-time employment. Records indicate that 87% of the boys and girls completing this program of part-time training continue as full-time employees with the employers who cooperated in the training.

Part-Time Cooperative Training Class

The class is made up of senior students who intend to work in an office upon graduation from high school. The students must have at least one year of typewriting before they can enroll in the class. The terminal semester of the senior year is a period of part-time on-the-job training. A minimum of fifteen hours per week employment in an office is required. Students receive school credit for classwork as well as for satisfactory work on the job. Students receive pay for their office work in addition to the school credit toward graduation.

There are many advantages to the student. It offers specialized pre-employment training. It gives the student an opportunity to try out in a real job situation. It saves time in discovering real interests and ability. It enables the student to earn while learning. It usually assures immediate full-time employment upon graduation. It usually assures more rapid promotion. It offers a wide variety of experiences which broaden job opportunities. It helps develop a feeling of confidence in one's ability.

Many phases of office work are included in the classroom instruction. First, office conduct is stressed, including responsibility to the employer, work habits, business etiquette, grooming and dress for the office, and human relations. Second, office procedures, including filing, answering the telephone, executing business forms, handling office mail, and receiving office callers. Third, office machines operation including dictaphone, soundscriber, duplicators, mimeoscope, calculators, adding-listing machines, and comptometers.

Girls’ Athletic Association

The purpose of this organization is to encourage the girls in this school in all phases of the physical education program, to promote good scholarship and school spirit, to establish the ideas of health, and to develop a spirit of sportsmanship in all of its members.

Membership is open to all girls of John Marshall High School. To become an active member in the Girls Athletic Association one must pay her dues of a quarter a semester and participate in the association activities.

The meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday in each month, at which time regular business is conducted. After the business session the vice-president, chairman of the program committee, provides some form of entertainment such as: movie slides and popular movies, games, talent from the members, and speakers.

All girls who participate in these sports are given points which are kept on file throughout the four years here at J. M. For the first one hundred points the award is a diamond shaped emblem, three hundred points a small felt letter, and for seven hundred and fifty points a large chenille letter.

Y-Teens have hikes, parties, dances, discuss present day problems, and have discussions on clothes, charm, personality, boy and girl relations and religion. Y-Teens also do worthwhile things in the community. During the past year we wrapped Christmas packages for the Salvation Army and had a YWCA swimming party.

The Record

Co-Editors: RAY MARLOW
PEARL FRAYSER

The Record is now completing its forty-first year as the Magazine of John Marshall High School. We are very proud of our magazine as we have won the "All American" award, the highest rating given by the National Scholastic Press Association, not only thrice, but four times, the fourth time in 1950.

The Record is a literary magazine written and edited by John Marshall students, for John Marshall students. The present staff, which this year happens to be 100 per cent feminine, is grateful to the English teachers for their wholehearted support in getting material for the part four issue and for helping in the sale and distribution of the magazines. To Mr. Grady Garrett goes the credit for having the greatest percentage of readers in his classes. They are grateful, also, to Mr. James Walthall for his help in launching a Cadet department, which we hope will grow and grow.

To the boys and girls, who have sweated out the manuscripts for our pages, we are deeply grateful, since without their time and effort the magazine would have been impossible. We are sorry to have to lose some of our good authors, in the senior class, but we are sure that there will be others who are just as interested in writing, who will take their places among the literary students of John Marshall.

To the seniors of the staff who are leaving us this February and June, we hope that you will not forget us, and we wish you all success and happiness that hides in each day of the coming future.

The Monocle

The Monocle has been recording the history of John Marshall High for twenty-two years, during which time the paper has won many high honors.

For the fourteenth time The Monocle won the International Honor Rating from Quill and Scroll Critical Service as a newspaper of superior achievements. In addition it won the Gallup Award and A for distinctive achievement.

As a reward to homerooms 100% in subscription, The Monocle gave a party for the homeroom representatives and teachers of these rooms.

The paper celebrated its twenty-second birthday, March 1, amid floating blue balloons and Marshallites laughing and singing. Misses Arnita Raffo, Mary Lambert, Sadie Engelberg, Pauline Benton, Mary Bailey Ragland, and Dr. Fred B. Dixon were some of the distinguished guests.

The Monocle won a first place rating this spring in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. Delegates attended the Southern Scholastic Press Meet at Washington and Lee University in Lexington during April.

An extra edition of The Monocle was sold at the end of the term as the last piece of work of the graduating staff. The main attraction of this edition was the "Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class" and a picture review.

Consistently the publication has tried to bring before its readers the main events of the year in all departments of work and community projects such as the Community Fund and Red Cross drives.

The Marshallite

"Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow creeps in this petty pace from day to day," so wrote the immortal Shakespeare. And we of the 1951 Marshallite Staff hope to capture within its bounds the beloved theme of all our yesteryears and make them live only as today.

This year the staff has been very fortunate in having Shirley Millington and Bobbie Allen as co-editors. With the invaluable help of Mrs. Burnett and Lt. Col. Brock, they have made The Marshallite meetings something to be pleasantly anticipated by the whole staff. The many trips to see Mrr. Ford, the commercial artist; Mr. Christopher, the engraver; and Mr. Butler at W. M. Brown & Sons, our printer, will not soon be forgotten.

To assist in the editorial duties and to make our work interesting the staff was divided into different committees, each being assigned a certain job.

To obtain $1,000 in advertisements was one of the major responsibilities in creating our yearbook. Six of the staff are now members of the "J. M. 50 Club," which requires the selling of $50 of advertising space in the yearbook. Jesse Morgan, our Cadet editor, sold the largest number of ads.

It may seem that the origination of The Marshallite was all work. However, the staff had a lot of fun just watching the book grow and finally take shape as a remembrance of a lot of good fun in those three most remembered years of our life — high school.

WARWICK

The John Marshall High School Justices under Coach Jim Hickey, started the 1950 season off with a bang whipping Warwick High 14-0 at the Warwick field. Led by the two Allens, Barbee and Jones, the Justices sloshed through the mud and rain to the two-touchdown margin.

GRANBY

Playing their second successive game on a wet field, the Blue and White scored in every quarter to down the Granby Comets 27 to 0. With all four backs scoring, and Quarterback Mel Roach converting three extra points the Justice grid machine rolled to its second straight triumph.

ST. CHRISTOPHER'S

St. Christopher's was the next to fall before the Justices as they fell 33 to 6 as Allen Jones and Granville Grant crashed the Saints' line for considerable gains. This proved to be a costly victory as Guard Warren Douglas broke his leg and was lost for the remainder of the season.

BENEDICTINE

With Allen Barbee scoring twice and Mel Roach once the John Marshall Justices turned back a determined Benedictine eleven 19 to 0. Jayem dominated play throughout the game but was only able to tally in the second half on runs of 65, 13 and 3 yards.

HAMPTON

After four straight triumphs the John Marshall Justices fell before the Hampton Crabbers 14 to 7 before 14,000 partisans at the stadium. Mel Roach was the offensive cog in the Justice machine.

HOPEWELL

The Justices lost their second straight contest to the Hopewell Blue Devils 41 to 13 on the victors field. The state champions led by Quarterback Johnny Dean had little trouble in disposing of the Justices. Jayem's attack had few bright spots but the 65 yard run by Allen Barbee on a kickoff gave the Justices their second T. D.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

The George Washington Presidents handed the Justices their third straight setback by a score of 22-7. Sparked by a second period field goal which gave them a 10-7 lead at half-time, the Presidents went on to score twice more in the second half.

NEWPORT NEWS

After three straight losses the Blue and White of John Marshall bounced back to thrash the Newport News Typhoons 37 to 14. The Justices scored at will thrughout the contest blanking the visitors until the last quarter.

PETERSBURG

The John Marshall Justices put another game into the win column with a 9 to 0 triumph over the Petersburg Crimson Wave on the losers Turkey Day Festival. Jayem scored all of the markers in the first half and threatened several more as they won their sixth game of the 1950 campaign.

TEEJAY

In a story-book ending the John Marshall Justices scored twice in the final three minutes to put back a determined T. J. team 14 to 0. Jayem dominated play through the battle but just could not tally. The first score was by virtue of a Teejay punt which rolled dead on their own 25. After a series of plays Roach scored from the one. As the Jeffs received the kick-off they were able to have only one down as Barbee intercepted a desperation pass and ran 65 yards for a score.

Let's make it, Ray.

BASKETBALL

The Blue and White cagers opened the '51 season with a sour note losing out in the final second 44-42 to Petersburg on the winner's court. The Justices fared better the next week and bounced back to trounce Glen Allen, newcomer to Group I circles, 37-22.

Jayem's second loss came from St. Christopher's by 32-26. The Irish from Benedictine proved too inexperienced as they fell before the Justices 52-30. Granby High of Norfolk dumped the Blue and White 43-36 to prove that height is a major factor. The tall Comets controlled the backboards.

The Justices lost another close one to Thomas Jefferson, their arch rivals by 46-44. A last second luck shot by Warren Mills saved Teejay's skin. Following the scrap with Teejay, the Justices journeyed to Hopewell where they fared no better. The Wonder

City cagers slapped a 61-44 defeat at the Justices. Maury invaded Richmond for a contest with Jayem which they lost 48-39. The Justices surged ahead in the final quarter with Bucky Luck, Mel Roach and Ray Pond leading the way.

John Marshall avenged an early season loss by thumping Petersburg 53-40. The Green and White of Benedictine were thrashed for the second time by the Justices. As the final buzzer sounded the score stood at 50-39.

Losing steam in the fourth quarter the Justices dropped a 60-49 contest to Teejay on the victor's court. The next day made it two in a row for Jayem as they lost another decision. This was to Hopewell by 54-49. The following Wednesday St. Christopher's bumped J. M. by 56-49. Lanky center Clayton Coates scored 26 to lead the Saints.

The Blue and White headed for the Tidewater District for games with Granby and Maury. Jayem took the measure of Comets 41-36. The Justice team brought many favorable comments from the home team fans. J. M. faltered the next night, falling before the Commodores 44-37. Jayem closed its season campaign with a convincing victory over Glen Allen. The final score was 54-35.

Mel Roach was the only Justice cager to gain an All-City Berth. He was the high scorer of the city and was by far one of the better performers.

BASEBALL

The Justices won their second Central District contest by downing Thomas Jefferson 5-2. The Blue-White continued their winning ways by topping Teejay 6-5 by breaking a tie in the ninth.

The Crimson Wave faltered again before the Justices, 16-11, in a hitting battle that had a comedy of errors as a side feature.

The Justices mauled Thomas Jefferson 17-1 in a contest that saw the Justices outhit the Jeffs 13-2. Teejay had seven miscues to Jayem's perfect fielding.

John Marshall chalked up win number six as they topped the Hopewell Blue Devils 8-5 in near freezing temperature.

It seemed that nothing would stop the high flying Justices as they bumped the Irish of Benedictine 8-1. The Green and White fared no better as they were blasted out 19 hits for win number eight. The final score read 14-2.

St. Christopher gave the Justices only six hits but they committed four errors as they lost 8-1.

Over the top.

John Marshall's first victory was from the Glen Allen Panthers, 69 5/6 to 43 1/6.

Co-captains Jack Sanford and Joe Holland were looked on for doing great things. Sanford was slowed down by a leg injury, while Holland missed the Teejay meet, and State meet, because of illness.

Despite his injury Sanford won the mile at the state meet. Buddy Gregory came along in the 880 and placed fourth at the state meet.

Allen Barbee, Bucky Luck and Marion Martin were the better dashmen.

Holland wasn't beaten in the shot put and also added some points in the discus. Buddy Scott came along as a pole vaulter, as did Buck Gale, to bolster the Justice's in the field events.

HOCKEY

Even though the girls' hockey team had an unsuccessful season in won and loss percentage and number of goals made, four players made the All-Prep teams.

Captain and left halfback Rose Dranchak made the first team, while center halfback June Omohundro and left inner Phyllis Cecil made the reserves.

A coaching session with Miss Constance M. K. Applebee, who introduced hockey into the United States from England, was a highlight of the season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

With five experienced lettermen on hand, the John Marshall girls' basketball team enjoyed a big season in posting the most impressive record made by a girls' athletic team in many a year at Jayem.

Holdovers from last year's team, Anna Mae Jordan, Carol Hayden, Frances Crouch, Marian Minor, and Maxine Lowry, were joined by Rose Dranchak and Betty Paschall, members of last year's junior varsity.

Not to be forgotten is the B team, whose record of eight wins and one loss also was quite impressive. Captained by Dot Marks, the team kept pace with the varsity, winning eight straight games, before dropping the last one.

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

HOME BENEFICIAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, Inc.
HOME OFFICE . . . RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Planning For Future Security . . .

Thousands of young men and women graduate from high schools throughout the land this June. Many of them look towards college educations and career opportunities which could not have been theirs except for life insurance purchased for them years ago by a loving parent or relative.

Life insurance guarantees many other personal and family ambitions too, and its ownership will bring you the same satisfaction and security it now provides millions in all walks of life.
